

CHARDONNAY

SITTELLA

2014 Sittella Reserve Wilyabrup Chardonnay Without doubt this is one of the wines of the Small Vignerons Awards. It's restrained yet complex, showing very attractive nougat characteristics which complement the white nectarine fruit beautifully. Persistence of flavour and balance are key palate features, and perfect textural grip is icing on the cake – not to mention the bargain price – especially for a premium quality Margaret River chardonnay. ($25.50) ★★★★★ TROPHY WINNER

2013 Hutton Triptych Margaret River Chardonnay A bold, beautifully made chardonnay with plenty of everything. It's in the full-on Margaret River style, but everything is in balance. The white peach and citrus varietal flavours carry the oak comfortably, and the palate is creamy, with a good acid line. ($40.00) ★★★★★

2013 Higher Plane Margaret River Chardonnay A mouthfilling chardonnay in which the white peach flavour is backed up by barrel ferment cashew and a creamy texture. ($35.00) ★★★★★

2013 McLeish Estate Hunter Valley Chardonnay A fresh citrus-like style with a creamy palate and well judged barrel ferment inputs. This wine is drinking very well right now. ($25.00) ★★★★★

2014 A Rodda Willow Lake Vineyard Yarra Valley Chardonnay Rich and peachy, with slightly “dusty” oak. The palate is long and well structured, with just-right phenolic grip. ($38.00) ★★★★★

2014 Montalto Estate Mornington Peninsula Chardonnay A bright, nicely textured chardonnay showing white peach characteristics with toasty notes. It’s drinking well now. ($42.00) ★★★★★

2014 Balgownie Yarra Valley Estate Chardonnay Quite mouthfilling, offering stone fruit aromas and flavours with vanilla custard and orange rind overtones. Drinking well. ($45.00) ★★★★★

2014 Montalto Pennon Hill Mornington Peninsula Chardonnay A fresh, vibrant white peach chardonnay with a pleasingly textural palate that carries just a little too much oak. ($28.00) ★★★★★
