

Sweet Whites

Sweet whites have a limited market in Australia, and that's a pity. The Freycinet and Lillypilly would partner a range of not-too-sweet desserts with distinction, while the fascinating and unique Crittenden Macvin would, served cold, be a conversation-provoking apéritif.

MV Freycinet Botrytis A beautifully fragrant, richly flavoured multi-vintage sweet white with a refreshing acid finish. Complex notes of marmalade and baked apricot contribute greatly to nose and palate. This wine is an ideal partner for tarte tatin or gratin of fruits. ($30.00/500 ml)

NV Crittenden Estate Cri de Coeur Macvin #2 Here's a fascinating wine that combines 2015 flor-aged savignan with 2019 savignan juice, fortified to 17.0%. A residual sweetness of 120 gm/litre is balanced by 7.4 gm/litre acid. The end result is an intense, luscious wine poised between Jerez and Sauternes. ($90.00) ★★★★★
