

SVA 2019 & 2020 Shiraz

2019 Atzes Corner The Bachelor Barossa Valley Shiraz This vibrant, intense shiraz held its own in a closely contested taste-off, and we were delighted when we checked the price. The perfumed blackberry varietal characteristics are matched perfectly by well seasoned oak, and the palate is delightfully intense and supple. ($27.00) ★★★★★

2019 Sons of Eden Zephyrus Shiraz The sheer fragrance of this shiraz almost got it over the line. There's also some intriguing whole-bunch complexity intertwined with the dark berry fruit and French oak. A beautifully made wine that will reward long-term cellaring. (Not yet released) ★★★★★

2019 Andrew Thomas Elenay Hunter Valley Shiraz Yet another top showing by this fragrant, spicy, red berry shiraz. The oak is well matched to the impressively long, intense fruit. A Hunter classic in the making. ($55.00) ★★★★★

2019 Eden Road Canberra Syrah The typical Canberra district florals and spices show out clearly in this impressive medium-bodied shiraz. Fine tannins balance the long, satisfying palate and the oak is perfectly integrated. ($50.00) ★★★★★

2020 Andrew Thomas Wines Sweetwater Hunter Valley Shiraz Offers plenty of colour and richness, but is a little too firm and closed. Promising, but needs time. (Not yet released) ★★★★★

2020 Sons of Eden Marschall Barossa Shiraz There's no shortage of flavour and ripeness in this plush Barossa shiraz. Oak is prominent at this early stage, requiring a little time in bottle. ($29.00) ★★★★★
