This collection of single vineyard chardonnays and pinot noirs continues the run of success enjoyed by this outstanding Yarra Valley producer. All six wines reflect precise winemaking and restrained use of oak.

2022 Oakridge Willowlake Gladysdale Chardonnay Fresh, reserved and varietal, showing white nectarine and grapefruit aromas, with a whiff of nougat. The satisfying, balanced palate is enhanced by some textural grip. ($48.00) ★★★★★☆

2022 Oakridge Hazeldene Gladysdale Chardonnay Very much in the white peach zone of aromas and flavours, this chardonnay also displays hints of toffee and toasted nuts. The palate is pleasingly textural. ($48.00) ★★★★★☆

2022 Oakridge Henk Woori Yallock Chardonnay Characteristics of white nectarine are augmented by those of apple, pear and cashew. The creaminess and grip of the palate add to drinking pleasure, as does the line of acidity. ($48.00) ★★★★★★

2022 Oakridge Willowlake Gladysdale Pinot Noir This is a delicate red cherry style with hints of undergrowth. The sweet fruit is promising initially, but tapers slightly to allow the acidity to assume prominence on the finish. ($48.00) ★★★★★

2022 Oakridge Hazeldene Gladysdale Pinot Noir Scents of strawberry and rhubarb lead into a balanced palate of silky opulence and satisfying fruit weight. Well worth cellaring for 3-5 years. ($48.00) ★★★★★☆

2022 Oakridge Henk Woori Yallock Pinot Noir A vibrant raspberry-strawberry, floral pinot showing a caress of oak. The impressive palate is long, with a dry, savoury finish. ($48.00) ★★★★★☆
